Etched in Time

The yearbook is a time capsule that is composed of writings, drawings, and pictures that will always be etched in time. No one will be able to destroy them, because someone will always have a yearbook. This theme works well with the name of annual, the Time 'n' Tide. In addition, we added the hourglass logo to include the sand; therefore both elements, time and tide, are linked.

This yearbook's unique cover is the result of a cooperative effort. Angie Richards painted the colorful inset background using pastel acrylics. Rachel Inabinette used a bamboo brush and India ink to freehand the lines around the cover inset. Rachel and Angie's art teacher, Mrs. Joyce King also helped with drawing the cover design. Page 1 artwork background is by Rachelle Sullivan.

Class Time

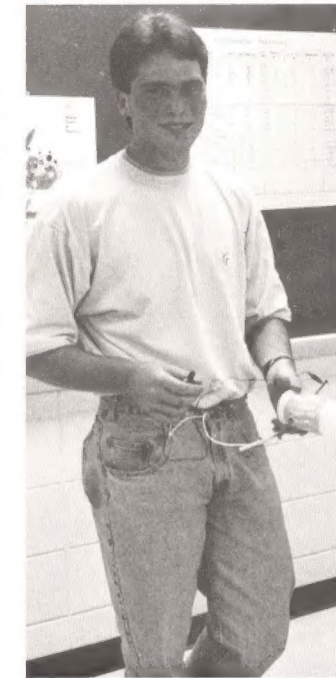

Lisa Dick, Brad Blackman, Ian Macon, and Robert Davis combine forces to get through Mrs. Harwell's lab reports.

Trudy Bang, Lakeitha Whittle, and Joseph Batson look in their books to identify the parts of Mr. Bones. Heather Frontiero and Katie Benezue find relaxation in their painting. Angel Ates, Marsha Harwell, Christine Holden, and Tammy Staten ask Mr. Pursley where they went wrong on their bio-chemistry test. Trisha Wages is drawing broccoli in sequence for her art assignment

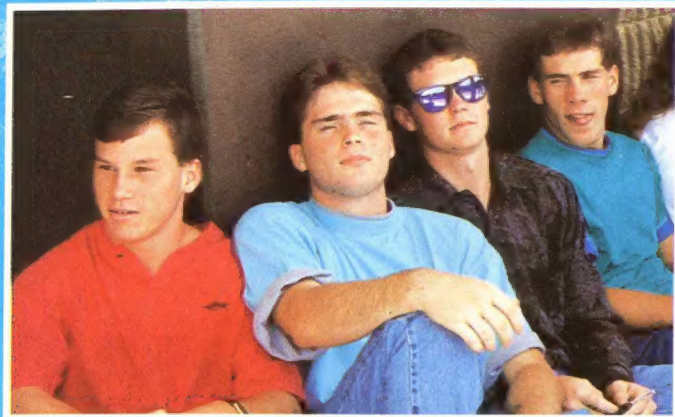

Mr. Stewart gives his Mississippi history lecture as Earline Bang listens attentively. P. J. Moore tries out Mr. Pursley's alcohol canon to see if it really works. (It does!) Suzie Jasper shows that one is never too old to enjoy fingerpainting. Mr. Seitz tells Tim Batson that there is a time to get serious. Rebekah Wise and Carey Washington wonder where they can hide Mr. Pursley's "little" key ring.

Trendy Times

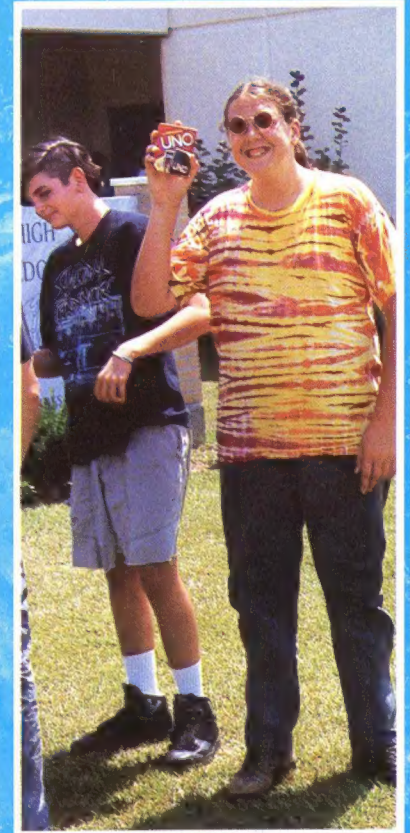

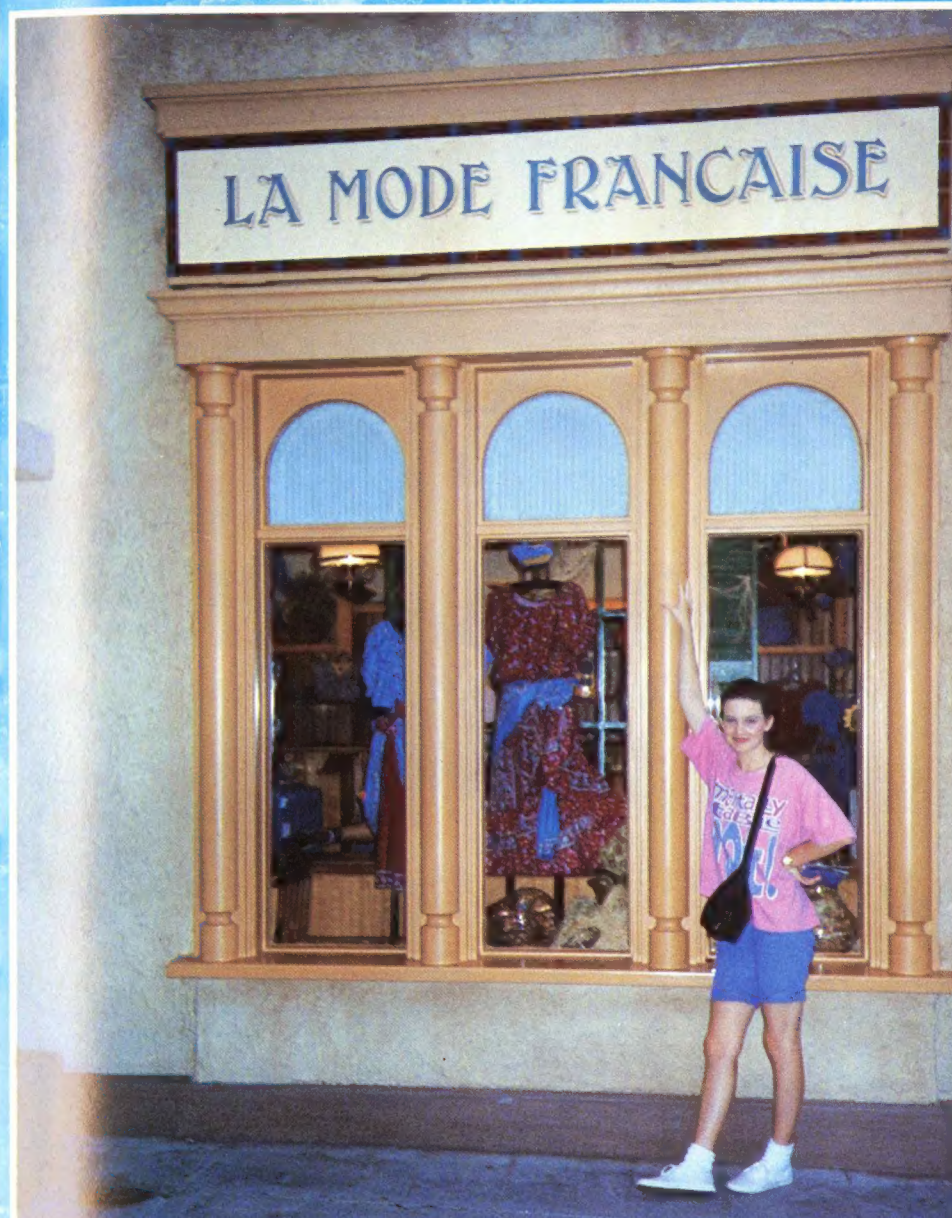

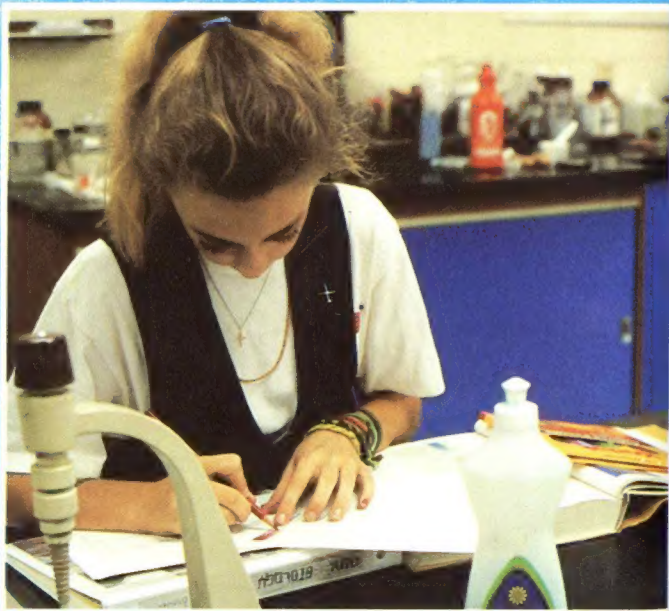

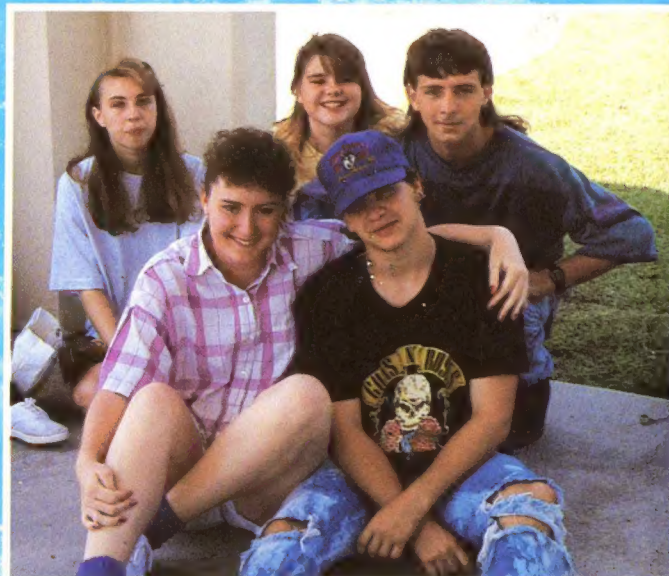

Jeremy Miller, April Buchanan, Lucretia Wages, Angie Richards, Lindsey Richards, and Patrick Taylor show that friendship is always in style. Adrian Burge is glad tie-dye is back.

Bart Tillman keeps up with the latest trends. Derek Whitney attracts friends with his trendy sunglasses. These girls sport lots of denim — a hot fashion. Christie loves Woody's in-look of a Guns

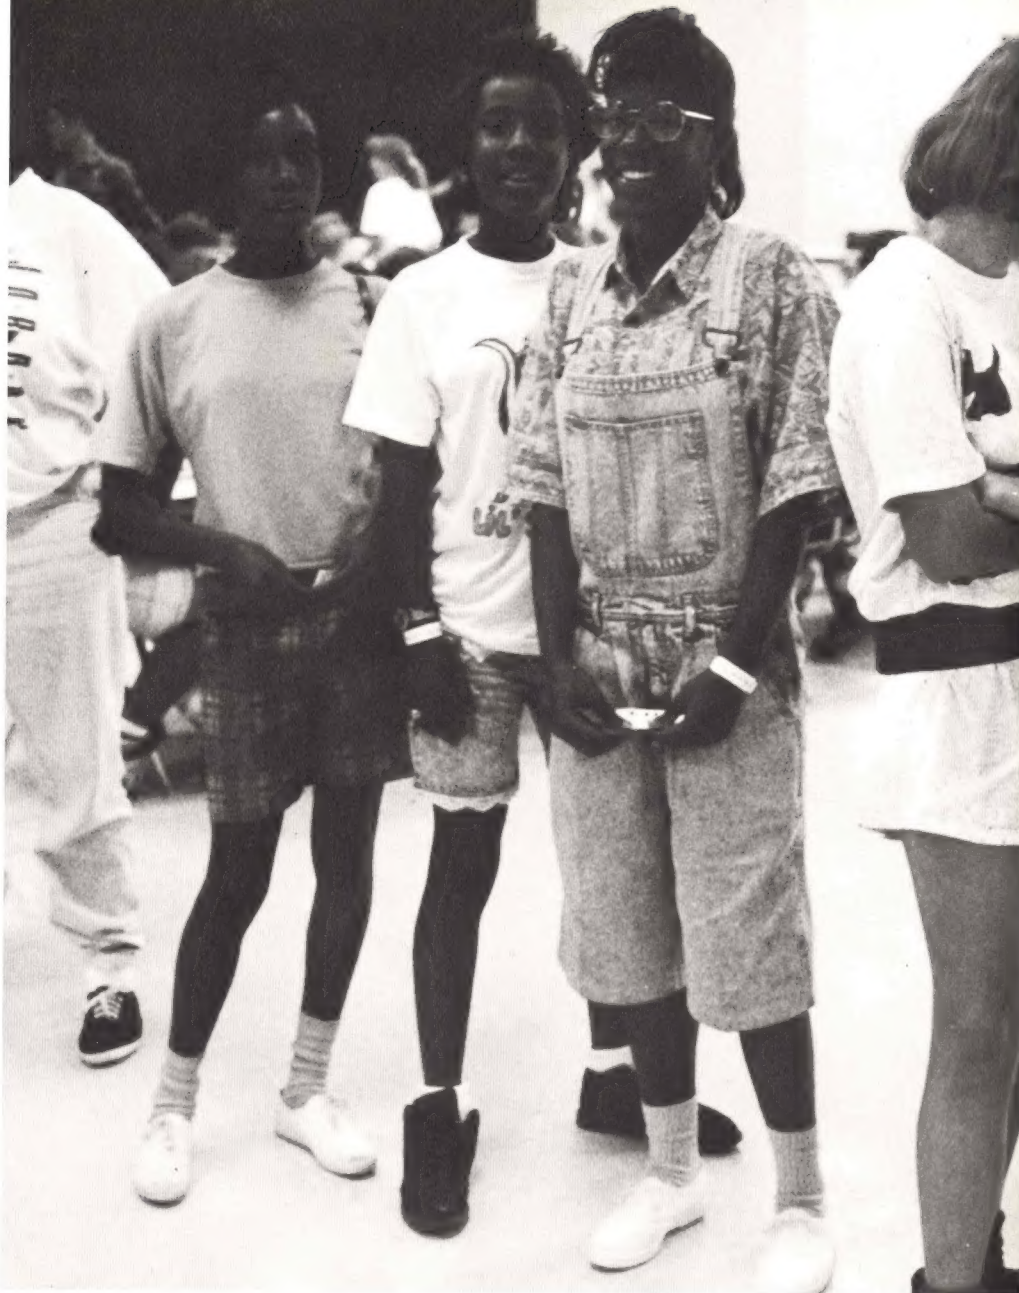

'N' Roses tee shirt and blue jeans bought with holes already in them. Jennifer Girod wears a stylish vest and friendship bracelets.

Kati McLean goes to the French village at Epcot Center. She and Janna Tolar took off a week of school to visit Disneyworld. Artwork background is by Suzie Jasper.

Lunch Time

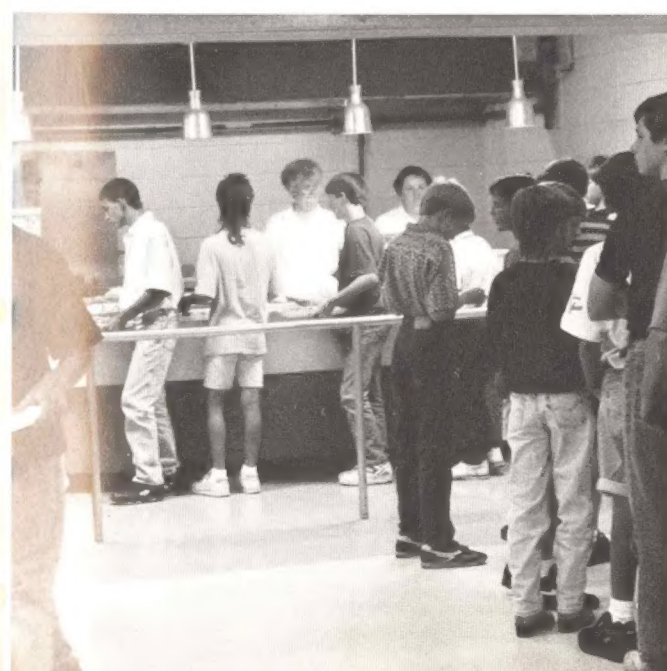

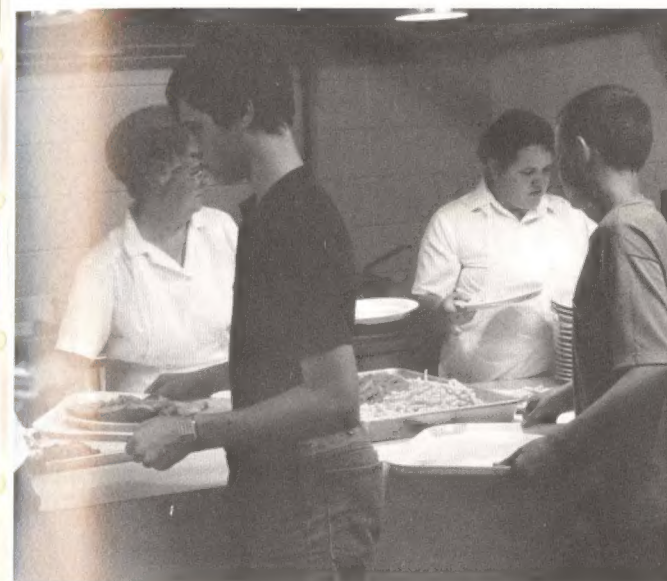

Monica Simmons, Tamisha Jackson, and Katrina Howard talk with friends while waiting in the regular lunch line.

Nikki Lane, Sonya Bradley and Melissa Mofu try to keep Nikki Davis from cutting into the hamburger line. Justin Sward sits at the head of the table and gives directions to Ben Inabinette, Ricky Ryals, Trey Turner, Brian Bang, John Parrish, Jason Owen, and Josh Russell.

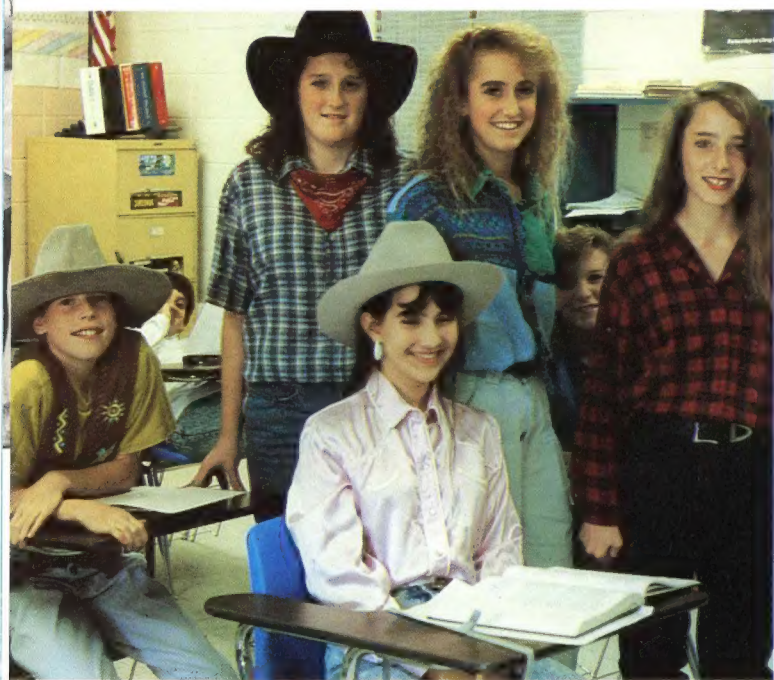

Joe Clark and Erika Fairley are glad they rushed to get to the front of the line. Terri Noble is getting ready to enjoy a chocolate milk shake while her classmates wait to pay.

Michael Lamas and Derrick Prosser like pizza and French fries anywhere. Jofinny Mizelle likes two milks with his food. Dusty Dees does not take time to get a meal ticket, so he pays with cash.

Spirit Week

Stephanie Ealy and Bridgett Stinson deck the halls with blue and white. Sherrie Davis, Tiffany Johnson, and Melissa Taylor show their spirit for dress-up day.

These girls saddle-up for a wild day at VMS. Middle Schoolers like to get made up for blue and white day.

Mrs. Thigpen carries a gun to keep cowgirls Cyndi Mallette, Kim Thames, and Christine Thrasher in line. Amber Thomas, Amber Peterson, Amanda Waltman, and Miranda Hand take turns mixing colors for their Home Ec. project.

What a Happy Crowd on Hippy Day!

Susan Stringfellow and Jeremy Peterson clown around on Blue and White Day.

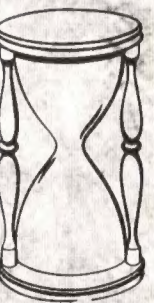

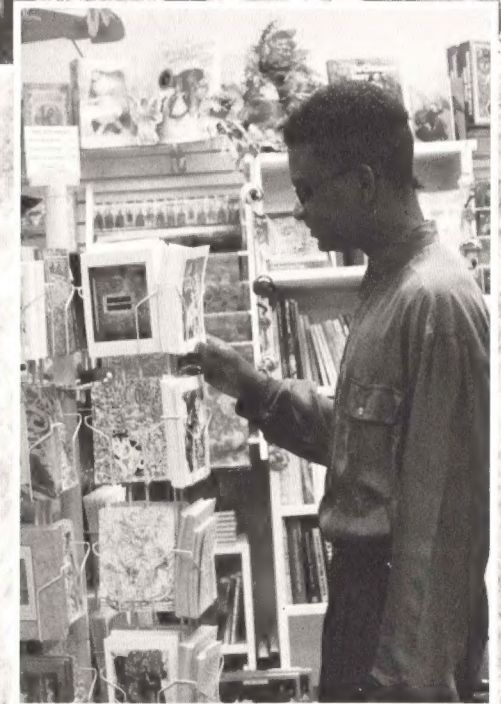

Let the Good Times Roll!

Coaches Parham, Lang, and Vecchio show the cheerleaders how it is done. Jason Orr gets hyped at a pep rally. Jennifer Simmons's friends help her get ready for the pep rally. Juniors give 100% in trying to win the spirit stick.

Reveille Time for a Field of Dreams

Many interested parties have invested time and donated materials to build a new baseball field behind VHS. The field covers ten acres of a 16th section parcel. After the wooded area was cleared last May, an irrigation system was installed. It has over a mile of PVC pipe and 70 sprinkler heads. Over 1,000 bushels of 419 Bermuda grass were sprigged. Johnny Mizelle was in charge of the on-site construction of the field, and James Henry helped get most of the donations. "The last couple of months all the parents of the players and the community of Vancleave has really gotten involved seven days a week. It's been a special project," states Head Coach Joe Hubal.

The dimensions of the part are 330-feet down the lines, 375-feet to the power alleys, and 390-feet to dead center. The dugouts are 12-feet wide, 50-feet long, and submerged 30 inches into the ground.

With the new Bulldog Park, the VHS players won't have to share a field with the summer league teams. Being in the state play-offs the past four years caused the seasons to overlap and created a problem. According to Hubal, "There is still quite a bit of work to be done, but when we are finished, it should be as good as any facility in the state."

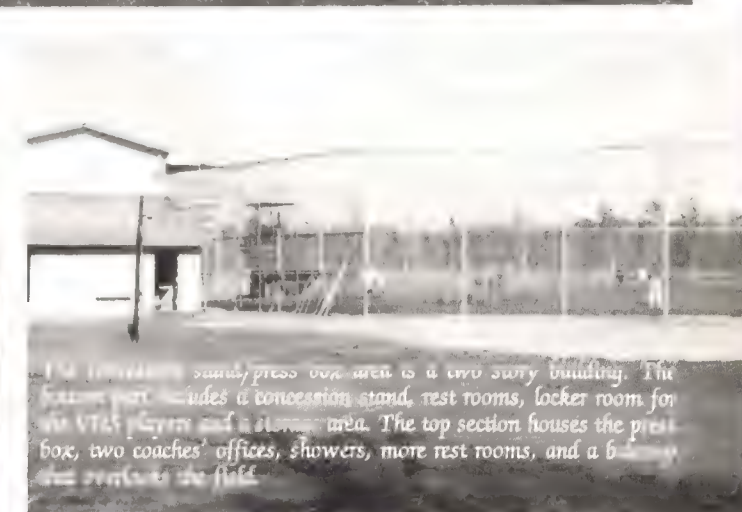

The new Bulldog Park was christened with a 12-0 win over Resurrection. According to Hubal, the excitement of playing in the park is something to behold. "It's just mind-boggling that it all came together in less than a year. This is something that the community of Vancleave can be proud of."

Stone County congratulates Vancleave after a 6-3 Bulldog Victory.

Matthew Lott smokes a bass line ground stroke at his opponent. Josh Fisher tosses up as he prepares to serve. Jason Rouse and Jennifer Cox play in mixed doubles tournament. Gerald Jackson stretches out to return the volley. Erinn Carley uses a forehand for a speedy return.

Golf Tee Time

P. J. Moore sliced a shot and now has to chip from the rough. Stephen Tanner lines up for a par putt. Scott Taylor works a drive around the trees on hole number 4 at the Jackson County Golf Course. Michael Cunningham wants 12 footer to fall. Chris Vuyovich sinks an easy putt at the clubhouse turn. Mike shanked a ball in the water and now has to fish it out.

VHS Cheerleaders

A new dance routine to "Watch Out! Watch Out! Ow!!" is to help pump the football players.

Coach Lang tries. Junior football players show their spirit. Several pep rallies were held outside. At the pep rally, the cheerleaders get everyone to participate in "Beat 'em, Bust 'em; Go Bulldogs Go!" It's time to "Go! Fight! Win!"

Homecoming Is Parade Time

The Freshmen win the float contest. Mandy is a little Devill Brandi Davis, Earnestine Burney, Kristi Hipp, and Raina Rushing show that being a hippy can be hip during spirit week.

The Juniors show their EXTRA-ordinary spirit! Patrick Taylor and Jason Quave are true Rebels. Kel-Lea Gardner, Flag Captain, heads for the parade on Homecoming Day.

The band prepares to lead off the Homecoming parade. The middle school gets ready to head for the Homecoming pep rally. Seniors are ready to ride. Kati, Jennifer, and Mary ride their horses in the parade.

The Sophomores have a catchy theme for their float — "Kill the Copy Cats."

Having a Heavenly Time

Ashley, Johnny and Jackie enjoy their refreshments. Jimmy Henry rocks the house.

The Achy-Breaky was a popular line dance at the prom. Tammy, Angel, and Christine are having a good time at their first prom. A night out on the town is right up Bart and Mary's alley.

Bart Holden and Shannon Robinson were crowned prom king and queen. Kristy and Alexis relax in the lobby. Natalie and Chris slow dance. Della, Adrian, Tammy, and Youlanda flaunt their men.

Etched in Heaven

The Junior Class made plans and raised funds all year to give the graduating seniors a heavenly prom night. All day Saturday, May 2, 1992, the juniors decorated the Ocean Springs Civic Center with a castle and scores of balloons for the prom that evening. Everyone who attended received a memory booklet. The colors were powder blue, white and silver. Glasses imprinted with the theme and date were the favors for the Seniors.

Robin Hood

A sword fight breaks out as the Sheriff of Nottingham's men storm the castle.

Julie Wills and Vickie Savage model their costumes in dress rehearsal.

Maid Marion prepares to reward the winning archer who, unknown to everyone, is Robin Hood. Maid Marion (Heather Frontiero) is about to be rescued by Robin Hood (P. J. Moore). After being attacked, beaten, and stripped of his uniform, the Sheriff of Nottingham (Kevin Mixon) reports back to Lady Merle (Miranda Wilson).

Julie Wills presents flowers to Mrs. Martin, who directed a great show.

and If a Man Answers ...

Chantal Stacey (Trisha Wages) explains the new man of her life to her mother, Germaine Stacey, who is played by Miranda Wilson.

Germaine Stacey gives advice about men to Belladonna (Carey Washington) during a party.

Gene Wright (P. J. Moore) and Chantal learn about being married as they adjust to living together.

Chantal visits with Tina (Suzie Jasper), an old friend from Boston who tries to steal Gene from Chantal.

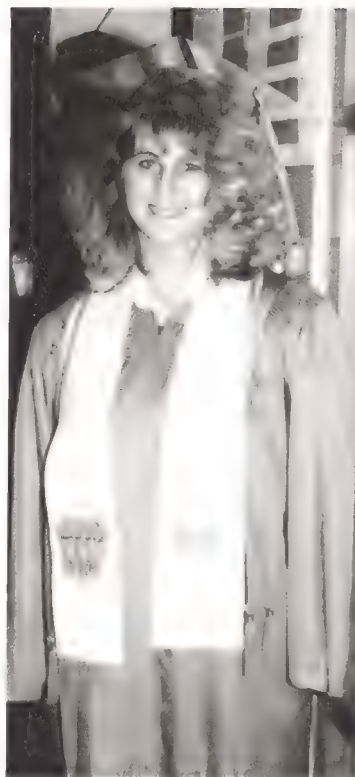

After their wedding, Gene and Chantal have a party for some of their friends.

Chantal prepares a small snack as Gene works on cleaning up his apartment.

CONGRATULATIONS GRADS

Stephanie Holcomb was Valedictorian for the Class of 1992.
Idona McMillan was Salutatorian. Tammy Lutes was Historian. The 1992 Seniors prepare to line up for graduation.

Amy Dowdy receives her diploma from Superintendent William H. Lee.

Time to Reap

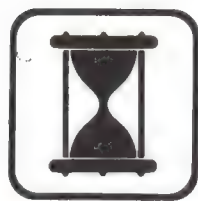

Tonya Fitzgerald, Lori Ely,
Jamie Ealy, and Stephanie Garcia are happy that they are graduating. Jason Fortenberry and Costas Conner are two memorable characters.

Wade Sistrunk leads the way to the diplomas. The 1992 Seniors take time to relax before graduation.

Time for a Change Election '92

The presidential election of 1992 was one of a kind. It was the first time in history that there were three major candidates for president: George Bush (R), Bill Clinton (D), and Ross Perot (I). This election brought out record numbers of voters to the polls. Bill Clinton won the election with 44% of the vote, with George Bush receiving 39%, and Ross Perot winding up with 17%.

Locally, Paul Harvey (R) made an unsuccessful bid for the U.S. House of Representatives against incumbent Gene Taylor (D). The sponsor, Mrs. Pam Martin, had the chance to meet with Paul Harvey at a Meet the Candidates luncheon held in Vancleave.

ERIC SIMMONS

To someone special and someone I adore. For now and forevermore. I will hold your treasure in my heart and keep it locked in a very warm spot.

If you only knew how much I miss you. You would see just how much I care for you. There will never be another you. You're one of a kind, and very special, too. Now my world is just so blue without being able to hold you.

If God would just grant me one wish, it would be to spend my last minutes of life with you! If only I could see you smile just one more time. The tears that would roll down my face would be so kind.

Now, the days have gone by, and when the sun is at rise, I will think of you, and oh, how much I love you. You're very dear, and I promise I will always keep you near.

In my heart and in my soul for now and forevermore!

— Holly Ates

"Wasted Time"

Sitting here knowing that you never had a chance,
That life dealt you a very terrible circumstance;
Feeling sad that I never got to say goodbye,
That horrible and lonely night that you died.

I found out the next morning that you had slipped away,
Knowing in my heart that I could not live another day;
With the thought that life dealt you a terrible crime,
Wondering was it all just Wasted Time.

The thought of your death chilled me to the bone,
Being mad at you for leaving me all alone;
Your death tore me completely apart,
Putting a deep depression in my heart.

I know that you would have lived a wonderful life,
If only God above would have given you a chance;
Constantly thinking in my mind,
Was it all just a waste of time.

Treasures of the Heart

The 19th annual Who's Who Pageant was held Feb. 11, 1993, at the VHS Cafetorium. It was held to choose the Beauties and Beaux in grades 6-12 and to raise money to help pay for the yearbooks. Stage decorations were under the directions of Mr. Lundy and Mrs. King and her art students.

Felicia Wilson sang "The Rose," and Vickie Craven danced.

Last year's Most Beautiful, Lori Sanders, takes her walk down the runway before she hands out the trophies to the 1993 Beauties and Beaux. Mike Cunningham, pageant coordinator, thanks Jimmy Miller for singing and for doing such a great job emceeing the pageant. Natalie Chandler assisted Jimmy Miller in announcing the contestants.

It's Always Busy Time at Vo-Tech

Steven McKey explains how sturdy this structure was built by the Building Trades class. Hammer Baxter has plenty of "Friends in Low Places." Waylon Grimsley and Adrian Burge watch Kenny Kenner and Stephen Breland makes a repair in Buck's class.

JACKSON COUNTY VOCATIONAL-TECHNICAL CENTER

Julie Wills and Miranda Wilson learn how to use the printer. Buck shows Rusty Faulk "one more time." Lauren Netto learns to weld. Brian Ladinier thinks that he is a professional since he can cut a board without looking at it.

A Time to Hunt

Hunters in Vancleave wait anxiously for the opening days of deer season. There is archery season, primitive weapon (ex. muzzle loaders) and gun season, with and without dogs. Coach Parham is proud to show off his hunting skills. Leslie Rogers got her a spike in Vancleave with a 12-gauge.

Josh Bilbo with his slain Wild Boar — one of many killed in Vancleave. He also raises boars and turns them into the wild so that they won't die out. There is no season or limit on how many boars can be killed in a year. Jon Howell had a successful hunting season this year. With a 20-gauge, he shot a 3-point in Corinth, Miss., on November 27, 1992. It weighed 142 lbs. "dressed." Adam White was lucky on opening day of hunting season. It was his first drive with the dogs. The deer dressed out to 140 lbs. of venison. Mississippi Hunter Safety Director L. J. Smith reported that there were over 270,000 deer taken last year in MS. A new record was expected this year. The state requires hunters to wear an orange vest. This year hunters had to bear warm and unusual weather.

County Fair Time

October 23, 1992, was a school holiday in order for the students to attend the Jackson County Fair.

James David's head is still spinning as he gets off the tilt-a-whirl. Gwen Thrash wants Cliffy Dees to win her a big prize. Jennifer Tanner looks around for some of her friends to come ride with her. Jerod and Ryan Robinson play pool to try to win a teddy bear. Michael Green, Glenn Vuyovich, and Jimmy Green play one of their favorite games — scooping coins — and lost a fortune.

Ederick Coleman is more interested in making a basket than winning giant Polar bears. Laura Crowe, Stephanie Ealy, and Bridgette Stinson hold pictures they won by breaking bottles. Tina and Wesley just enjoy being together at the fair. Susan Nettles, Ebony Nettles, and Amanda Howard try to decide what game they want to play. Cliffy Dees and Matt Noblitt shoot hoops to win a basketball.

A Master at Etching Visits Art Classes

International Paper Company sponsored a grant financing the Art Department to have Master printmaker Sheila Springer teach students calligraphy and how to develop handmade paper. For 10 days students learned the steps in working with recycled paper. They blended used paper and plant material to its pulp state and to the final sheet of moldmade paper. Mrs. Springer was assisted by Dwight Reddix, a former VHS student.

American Culture Becomes Etched in Their Memories

Three exchange students who are part of the Youth For Understanding Program are studying at VHS this year. Andrea Gomes da Silva Roque has come from Rio de Janeiro, Brasil, and she is living with the Erickson family. Andrea, age 17, has come to the U.S. to learn to speak the language and to meet new people and experience a new culture. Her favorite subjects at Vancleave High are art because she loves painting, and drama because the classes are so funny. Andrea also loves the football games, volleyball, and swimming. For souvenirs she has bought M & M's, Nike's, and CD's (because they are cheaper here than in Brasil). Andrea says what she likes best about Vancleave is "the teachers are great, the people are friendly, and everybody is very nice. Thanks for my family (I love them!) and everyone at school. I will never forget this year, and I will miss . . ."

Kaoru Hamano

Kaoru Hamano

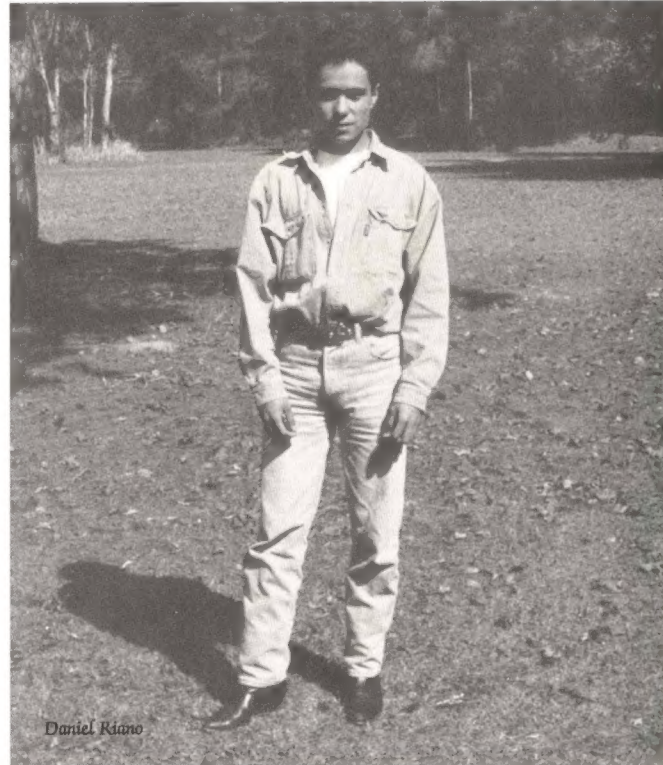

Called Katie by her teachers and friends, Kaoru is from Yokosuka, Japan. She decided to be an exchange student because she wants to learn more about this country. Katie is living with Mr. and Mrs. Julius Erickson. When asked her age, she replied, "I'll be 18 years old in June." Katie says that her favorite subject at VHA is drama because "we are having so much fun!" Her favorite thing to do at school is eating candies during break. Her favorite activity has been the football games. What she likes best about Vancleave is the "neat, friendly, Great people." Things she has bought to take back as souvenirs are baseball caps (NY Yankees and Atlanta Braves) and things from the French Market in New Orleans. Katie comments, "Thanks so much for your every kindness. I will never forget you. Thank you, my friends!"

Katie enjoys a special French dessert made at Germaine's Restaurant in Ocean Springs.

Daniel Riaño

Daniel Francisco Hernandez Riano, 18 years old, is spending his junior year at VHS. Daniel comes from Bogota, Columbia, and resides with the Lewis family. He is an exchange student because he wants "to learn English and have a new experience." For souvenirs, Daniel "would like to buy some cowboy wear!" He especially likes the belt buckles! One of the activities he has enjoyed the best is going to the Mardi Gras festival. His favorite thing to do in Vancleave is to go fishing. He also likes to "cruise around the town." He says, "I like Vancleave because it is quiet and peaceful, and the people are friendly and kind."

Remember the Time . . .

What an unbelievable year! There have been so many important world events. To us, the most important things happened right here in Vancleave. The happenings of this year have been extremely diverse. Who can forget the happenings on college and career day at the Junior College, or the notorious bathroom bandit who has never been caught? The highlight of the year was losing break because of the campus being dirty. NOT!!! The Drama Club performed several plays: one with a guest appearance from the Energizer bunny. The band received all Superiors at the Gulf Coast Marching Band contest. In Sports, the football team played a record-setting game. The score was 45 to 8 against Mercy Cross. The baseball team received a new field. The basketball team won District.

In the beginning of the year, Eric Simmons was taken away from us. I am sure that his memory will always be with us. The majority of all this year's most memorable moments are etched in this yearbook.

I have been on staff for two years. As assistant editor I was bestowed with many duties and responsibilities such as deadlines and fund raisers. Through it all, the rest of the staff was right there with me trying to make this yearbook a success.

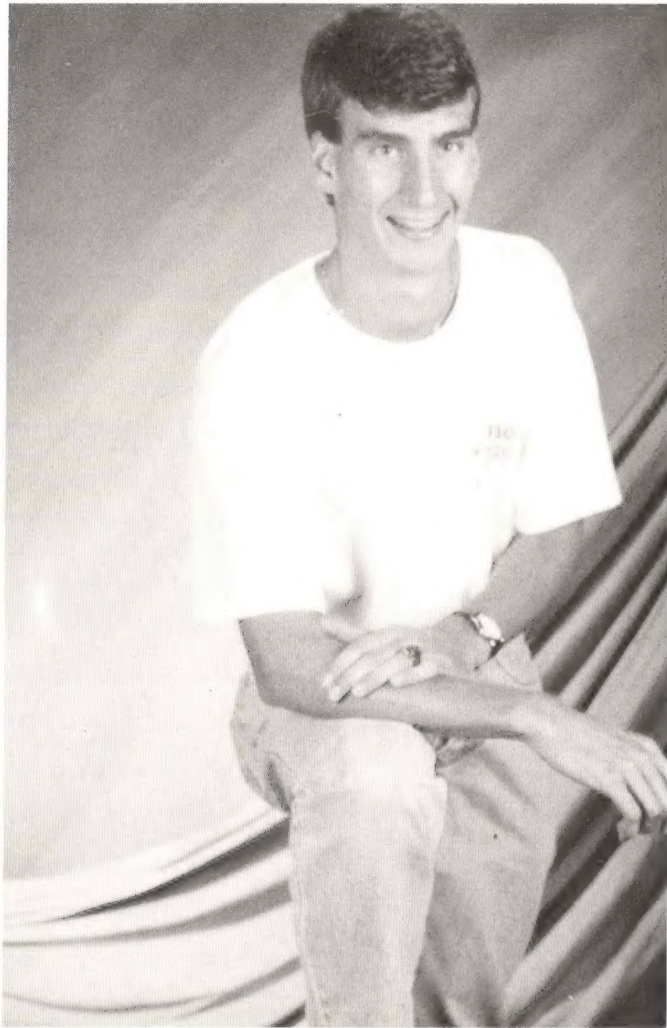

A lot went into making this yearbook special. The rest of the staff and I appreciate all of the help that we received. Our sponsor, Mrs. Stietenroth is the most remarkable person that I know. I really admire her dedication and ability to work hard in pressure situations. I could always count on Mrs. Coy Ann. She always kept me laughing. Scott's mom was always right there, too.

Mrs. King and her classes were always willing to lend a hand. A special thanks to my mother. My mom has always supported me in everything I have done. We really appreciate YOUR support because you bought a yearbook. I hope this yearbook makes all of your memories timeless!!

Where Did the Time Go?

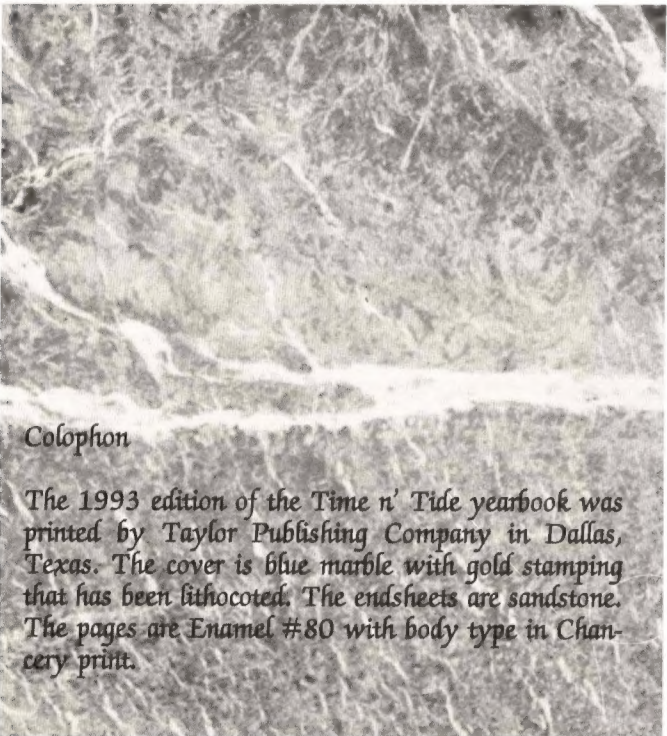

The first thing you see when picking up this book is the hardest thing to do — design a cover with a theme. I started working on this task a year while waiting for the '92 yearbooks to come back, but I didn't go anywhere. It wasn't until we got part of the staff together and focused at annual staff camp, that we came up with an idea for a theme and a cover design.

"Etched in Time" is what we finally went with, and did it ever take a lot to make this book, time that is. The staff works every day six days a week, and most of the time more than that. This is my third year on staff. Undoubtedly, this year is the hardest I've worked, and the rest of the staff has worked just as hard. Not only has this staff worked hard and given their time in class, but out of school, too, for the concession stands at all home football games, the Who's Who dance, Homecoming, the Beauty/Beau Pageant, and all other yearbook functions. We work like a team and a group of good friends.

Therefore, I want to thank the entire Annual Staff and of course, Ms. Stietenroth. She has not only been an advisor, but also a role model. Next, I want to thank Mrs. Coy Ann for coming to the concession stands and cooking all those hamburgers. That isn't the only thing she did for us, but it was certainly the best tasting. Ms. King, how can I thank you and your classes enough for providing us with all these great backgrounds? You also did a fine job decorating for the pageant. Last, but in no way least, I thank my family for the help and support. My mother worked with us at concession stands and other fund raisers, as did Latasha's mom. For their help, I sincerely thank them.

Now, thank you for purchasing a part of Vancleave history. This will never again be a 1993 yearbook, and we've done our best to Etch Our Year in Time.
